Ride With Me are offering on-site self catering accommodation for residential riding holidays in our recently refurbished cottage. Enjoy the serenity of ranch life whilst staying in a beautiful 150 year old Andalucian cottage, spend mornings with the horses before preparing your horse for a trek, whether you prefer short treks or full day treks we can tailor your holiday to suit your needs. Rancho Bravo, home of Ride With Me is situated close to Coin in the Rio Grande valley in the heart of picturesque rural Andalucia, with a noticeable absence of large development or industry nearby it retains both it's original beauty & tranquility. Refitted in original styling the cottage transports you back to a time long forgotten, where life felt simpler & less hurried. Awake feeling refreshed & ready to face the day, whether you prefer an early morning ride or simply to relax around the on-site pool & ride later in the day we feel sure a holiday at Ride With Me is just the tonic to the stresses of todays hectic life.

Our self catering accommodation comprises of : 1 double bedroom 2 twin rooms & 1 single room, The Cottage also boasts a fully-fitted kitchen & a bathroom complete with shower & bath for relaxing tired muscles or refreshing tired minds. After a days riding enjoy the warmth of the lounge, decorated to reflect the stylish influences of the Moorish & North African people throughout Andalucia it also features the original fire place should those cold nights draw in or if you simply want to relax & enjoy an evening in front of an open fire.

Please check out 'The Cottage' album in our gallery section for views of the rooms & the ranch.
